City of Leesburg to Honor “Patriot Day 2003”

On Thursday, September 11, 2003, at 8:30 a.m., the City of Leesburg's Mayor David Connelly will conduct a ceremony in observance of “Patriot Day 2003.”

This ceremony is in remembrance of the bravery and heroism that was greatly demonstrated by the tragic events that began at 8:46 a.m. on September 11, 2001.

You are invited to join Mayor Connelly and city staff, at the front steps of City Hall, as we reaffirm our vows to fight for safety and security in America.

President Bush has asked all citizens to fly their flags at half-staff, as a symbol of respect and unity, in observance of this day.
